

LIBOR COMMITTEE EXPECTATIONS

Congratulations on your appointment to a LIBOR committee! Committee participation offers a fantastic opportunity for networking and enjoyment, but it also comes with significant responsibilities that require your commitment. Kindly review the expectations outlined below to ensure both you and LIBOR benefit fully from your involvement. We appreciate your willingness to serve on a LIBOR committee and thank you again for your time.

1

COMMITMENT

Volunteers are expected to attend and actively participate in their committee meetings and events

2

RESPONSIBILITY

Volunteers should complete their duties to the best of their ability and within the given timeframe

3

COMMUNICATION

Volunteers should maintain good communication with the association and fellow volunteers. This includes attending meetings, reporting on progress and/or addressing concerns.

4

TEAMWORK

Collaborating effectively with others is important for achieving shared goals.

5

PROFESSIONALISM

Volunteers are expected to treat others with respect, maintain confidentiality, and represent the association positively.

6

RELIABILITY

Being punctual and fulfilling commitments is essential.

7

TRAINING & SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Volunteers may be expected to undergo training or skill development to effectively carry out their duties.

8

FLEXIBILITY

Adaptability is often required as volunteer roles may change or evolve. Volunteers should be flexible and open to new tasks or responsibilities.

9

ADHERENCE TO RULES AND GUIDELINES

Volunteers are expected to follow LIBOR's Bylaws and Policy & Procedures Manual.

10

PASSION & ENTHUSIASM

Volunteers should be passionate about the cause or organization they are serving. Enthusiasm and a genuine desire to contribute are highly valued.
